My fellow Providence residents –

We on the City Council hope the New Year finds you happy and healthy. As with most, I have taken the opportunity to make a few resolutions for the year 2012. However, the commitment from the City staff remains the same, to serve you in the best possible manner, making Providence City the best it can be.

The New Year brings with it some changes to the Council. We would like to welcome Ralph Call on board, as he replaces David Low, whose term expired. Words cannot express my appreciation for the work and commitment exhibited by David and we will surely miss his presence on the Council. I speak for the rest of the Council as we look forward to working with Ralph as your representatives.
