April 2022

The Mayor's Message

Dear Providence Citizens:

As of April 30, 2022 Providence City will have a vacancy for an Alternate Planning Commissioner. If you would be interested in serving on this board, we would love to talk with you about it. You don't need to be an expert with the General Plan or Land Use codes, but you do need to be willing to learn about them. Alternate members attend meetings and participate in discussions, but do not vote on items until either another opening becomes available or when a voting member is absent, which will give you time to come up to speed on State and City codes. We promise that it is not a boring job and you even get paid. Scan the QR code to read the Powers and Duties of the Planning Commission as well as the Bylaws. Please contact Mayor Alder at (435) 752-9441 or (801) 564-5562 if you have any questions, or send your resume to Ty Cameron at tcameron@providence.utah.gov.

Historic Markers

The Historic Preservation Commission is in the process of placing markers around the historic section of the city. Three have been installed; two at Jay's Well Park on the NE corner of 400 South & Main Street, the other at Zollinger Park (51 N 200 W). The marker at Providence Elementary school has been temporary removed. Four other markers are in the process of being installed, two at the Cattle Corral Park (150 E 200 S), with two others on the corner of Center Street & Main. We hope that you will take the time to visit these sites and read about the history of Providence.

Code Compliance & Land Use

Please be Responsible Pet Owners: Section 5-1-30 of the City Code lists responsibilities for animal owners/caretakers such as cleaning up after your animal. For the complete chapter regarding Animal Control, scan the QR code or visit https://providence.municipalcodeonline.com/book?type=ordinances#name=Chapter\_5-1\_Animal\_Control.

Stormwater Information: As you are doing your outdoor spring-cleaning, please remember to check the waterways (ditches and gutters) near your property. Clean waterways allow for irrigation and storm water to move freely and safely. Unfortunately leaves and other debris seem to often find their way into the waterways. Your help by regularly checking and maintaining waterways on and/or near your property is greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance for helping us keep Providence a great place to live. For more information visit: <https://providencecity.com/storm-water/>. To report an illicit discharge into the system call (435) 752-9441 or (435) 753-0313.

Before you Build: Are you thinking of building a pool, fence, shed, or detached garage or shop? You will need a zoning clearance and you may need a building permit. You will also need to know where your property lines are. For more information please visit: <http://providencecity.com/community-development-2/>.
