

PROVIDENCE CITY SAUERKRAUT DAYS VENDOR INSTRUCTIONS
AUGUST 20, 2022

Thank you for your interest in Sauerkraut Days! The following guidelines must be followed by ALL participants.

TO APPLY:

1. Identify what type of vendor for which you qualify according to the list below. You will be required to indicate your vendor category on the application.

- Farmers Market Vendor: Items that are grown, made, or produced in Providence.
- Food Vendor: "At event" dining options.
- Event Service Vendor: "At event" services (face painting, balloon making, etc.).
- Non Service Vendor: providing info that can be applied outside of the event (insurance, healthcare, real estate, etc.).
- Retail Vendor: Items that can be purchased at the festival, non-local).

2. All Vendors: Fill out and mail the enclosed application with a check made out to Providence City for the amount specified. You may also apply at the Providence City Office. The deadline to register is August 1, 2022. However, booths may be filled before this date. If mailing payment, it must be received by the office by August 15, 2022. All fees are non-refundable.

3. All Vendors: Your application is NOT considered complete unless it includes a total list of items you wish to sell. Food vendors enclose a full menu. To prevent duplication, please DO NOT add any items to your list once your itemized list has been accepted. No exceptions.

4. Vendors using a Truck or Trailer: Your application is not considered complete unless it includes FULL measurements of your truck or trailer; A) Length, including hitch, B) width, and C) height. If your measurements change after your application has been accepted, you will have to re-apply with current measurements. If measurements are not accurate when you arrive on site or are different than what you submitted on your application, your application can be revoked or your booth location/number changed.

5. All Vendors: Your booth space will not be reserved until payment has been received. You can pay in person at the Providence City office, or via mail using the mailing address provided on the following page. Make checks payable to Providence City: Memo Sauerkraut Days.

6. The first 5 Providence based businesses will receive a full refund for booth fee after the event if they choose to participate.

All applications will be reviewed on a first come, first serve basis. Duplicate items may be denied and your payment returned to you. We will have your menu/goods/services in mind when placing you. You will receive your booth assignment one week prior to the celebration. Providence City has the right to change the booth assignments as needed. All vendors must stay at their assigned booth. We do not allow roaming vendors. Thank you for supporting these changes. If you need water, please take note of the location of the access points on the map. Water must be carried to and from stations. There are no direct water hose connections available. We do not supply tables or chairs. Be prepared with your own if needed.
