- 70 • Parties discussed the old contract and previous plans they had years ago in obtaining the Ev Thrope
- 71 painting. Parties discussed the issues with the contact that the parties had that prevented them from
- 72 coming up with an agreement to obtain the painting.
- 73 • Howard Christenson commented on the old contract that was in place when the painting was displayed
- 74 at the old city office building.
- 75 • Gordon Allred indicated that he has talked with Frank Prince, an art gallery and print shop owner, about
- 76 requirements and concerns in displaying the painting in the City Council room. Gordon stated that Mr.
- 77 Prince indicated that with it being an oil painting there would be no issues or concerns with displaying it

- 79 if it accidentally gets touched.

- 86 creation of a 9th and 10th historical marker, which would be for farming and fruit. Parties discussed the
- 87 location of where these markers would go.
- 88 • Wes Bitters volunteered to do a write for the fruit marker.

- Parties discussed their budget. They have enough in the budget to do one marker this year and possibly do another marker the following year. They discussed having the farming marker be done this year but would still like Wes to draft a write up for the fruit marker so that its ready to go.
