Public Hearings:

(42 MIN. 50 SEC.)

➤ Item No. 5 Providence City’s Code Codification: The Providence City Council will take questions and comments regarding the City’s current code codification. The codification seeks to update the City code with more concise and complete language as well as making it compliant with the Utah State Code.

- Mayor Alder called item 5, gave a brief introduction, and opened the floor for public comment.
- Ryan Snow, City Manager, reviewed with the Council and those present the purpose of the codification and the process. He indicated that the codification has been public to the citizens for over 30 days now.
- No comments were made. Mayor Alder closed the public hearing.

Resolutions/Ordinances:

(44 MIN. 35 SEC.)

➤ Item No. 6 Ordinance 06-2022 Code Codification: The Providence City Council will review, discuss, and may take action on an ordinance adopting and enacting a new code for Providence City, Utah. (ORDINANCE 06-2022) (CODIFICATION (w. strikethrough))

- Mayor Alder called item 6, gave a brief introduction, and asked Council for any comments.

- Council member Paulsen asked about the cost of the codification. Ryan Snow responded that overall, it cost around $15,000 and reminded Council that it has been over 20 years since the code was codified and that most cities codify their code every 7-10 years.
- Council and staff discussed potential conflicts and purpose of codification.
- Council member Sealy motioned to approve the codification with Council member Nebeker seconding her motion. Council continued discussion of codification.
- Council member Speth asked about page 31 and 36 of the strikethrough codification and whether peak months needed to be listed as it currently is and whether secondary water stock representative needed to be plural. Parties discussed the issues and concluded that it was ok as is.
- Council member Kirk listed some discrepancy and asked if they should be fixed such as on page 59-60 D “charter” word should be changed to code. Indicated also its called charter in section P change to chapter. Council agreed. Page 63 2-3-1 Historical heritage is redundant, just needs heritage. Council agreed. Page 69 3-1-5 6 asked why is childcare called out? Shouldn’t it just state all home business? Council agreed to strike childcare from section. Stated page 82 section L is redundant, it is listed under prohibited businesses, Council agreed that will be stricken. Commented on page 135 that the Dairy and Feed Lot’s sections be removed since they are a thing of the past in Providence. Council agreed and that section will be removed. Indicated that in 5-1-20 B the word should be “sheet” not “Sheep”. On page 144 5-5-6 combine A and B to one sentence. Indicated that on page 161 - 7-2-3 suggested to strike "unless special permission . . .", Council discussed the wording and believes it should stay. In section 7-2-5 that it should just have to be approved by the public works director. On page 198 she stated that it seems like overkill to have the application in the ordinance. Council agreed and will strike the application. Commented on page 243 10-1-2 2 to take out R309-113-6 and Definitions at the end of the sentence. Council agreed as it is outdated. And finally on page 262 2 should be a Capital “A”
- Parties discussed the section of the code where it uses the word ‘reserved’, as it indicates it can be added to later on and wondered if it should be clarified. Parties agree to change or add ‘reserved for future use’ throughout the code to better clarify for readers.
- Parties discussed the special events section of the code and whether it was needed or if it should be changed. Council agreed no changes are necessary at this time.

Council member Sealy motioned to amend her previous motion. Council member Sealy motioned to approve the codification with the stated and discussed corrections 2nd – Council member Nebeker.

Vote:

Yea- Council members Sealy, Paulsen, Kirk, Speth & Nebeker.

Ney-
